eLearning Student Tutorials

Getting Started with eLearning

- Part 1: Understanding the eLearning Homepage
- Part 2: A look inside a course

Working in your course

Each course is designed differently. So you may or may not see all of these tools in your course. Your instructor decides which tools are needed in the course. The syllabus will tell you which tools will be used in the course.

Microsoft Teams and Stream

- How to Access a Course Meeting in Teams
- How to Access a Lecture Recording in Stream

Blackboard Collaborate

- How to use Blackboard Collaborate - Video, Handout
- How to use Blackboard Collaborate in a group
- How to join breakout groups
- How to add a Profile Picture to Blackboard Collaborate - Video, Handout

Online Tests

- How to take an Online Test
- How to view a Graded Test

LockDown Browser Tests

- How to Install the LockDown Browser
- How to take an online test in LockDown Browser

Assignments

- How to Submit Assignments

Check out some FAQs on eLearning assignments here: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/FAQ/Assignment_FAQ

Turnitin

- How to Submit a Turnitin Assignment - Part 1
- How to Review Grade and Feedback for Turnitin - Part 2
Grades & Rubrics

- How to check your grades
- How to Locate and Review Rubrics

Email

This tool is meant to help you easily locate your instructor’s and classmates’ emails in order to contact them. It is a send-only tool which means the emails you send will be viewed in your recipients’ Outlook inbox. And you will see their replies in Outlook as well.

- How to send emails from within the course

Groups

- How to join a group
- How to Submit a Group Assignment

Blogs and Journals

- How to make a Blog Post
- How to create a Journal Entry

Discussion Boards

- How to use the Discussion Board

Wikis

- How to Create a Wiki Page
- How to Edit and comment on a wiki

Self and Peer Assessment

- How to submit your responses
- How to evaluate your classmates’ responses

For more videos please subscribe to UT Dallas eLearning team’s YouTube Channel.

If you would like us to create tutorials on any other topics related to eLearning, please email us at elearning@utdallas.edu.

You can also find tutorials at Blackboard’s Student Help Page.

You can also learn how to prepare to take fully online class with the Comet Path for Online Learning module.