The UT Dallas Testing Center is open for in-person proctored exams in the 2022 Spring semester. We are following sanitizing guidelines closely to safeguard the health and safety of all. As a matter of personal choice, you may bring in a disposable wipe to further sanitize your test space and if desired, you may also wear disposable gloves during testing. Your wipe and gloves will be inspected before and after the exam, and both the wipe and gloves will be disposed upon completion of your exam. You are also strongly encouraged to bring and wear your own face mask the entire time you are at the Testing Center, including throughout your exam. You will be asked to briefly remove the mask during the check-in process for identification verification purposes.

UT Dallas uses the ALEKS Assessment to optimize the placement of all students in their first math course. The UT Dallas Testing Center provides in person proctoring of the ALEKS assessment to UT Dallas students. You must complete all steps to confirm your ALEKS Assessment Registration prior to taking the assessment at the UT Dallas Testing Center.

Prior to Testing

Step 1: Students MUST initial and pay UT Dallas directly for access to the ALEKS Assessment. Click here for more information.

Step 2: Once the above action has been completed, students can take the acceptable proctored ALEKS at the UT Dallas Testing Center.

Step 3: Go to MARKETPLACE to pay the proctoring fee.

Step 4: The last step is to reserve a seat with the UT Dallas Testing Center. You must RESERVE your seat at least 72 hours in advance via this link https://ets.utdallas.edu/testing-center

Step 5: Arrive at the Testing Center on your scheduled date and time. The Testing Center is located at 3020 Waterview Pkwy, SP2 Suite 11.175, for your scheduled ALEKS Assessment.

On Testing Day
